Seaboard Offers Aid Against Truck Problem

Cooperation with commuter groups to avoid congestion on Mt. Diablo Boulevard is one of the main objectives of Seaboard Transportation Company, Walter A. Junge, Seaboard owner and president, told The Sun last weekend, before going to Seattle on a business trip.

Junge, himself a commuter living at 12 Northwood Drive, Orinda, made his statement when asked for comment on recently increasing complaints that large trucks on the highway during peak commute hours delay commuter traffic.

Informed that some of the complainers point to Seaboard as the "worst offender," Junge said:

"AS FAR AS we're concerned, we try to have our trucks leave Antioch at 5 a.m., so as to reach Oakland and San Francisco before 7. We get through the Tunnel at about 6:15 or 6:30 a.m.

"Coming back, we try to get our trucks out of San Francisco by 2:30 or 3 p.m., so as to avoid the commuter peak.

"Once in a while, a truck is a little late in starting out. If it leaves Antioch after 5 or 5:1 5a.m., we route it along Franklin Canyon Road, via San Pablo. Late trucks returning from San Francisco are routed the same way."

REGARDING a complaint (in a letter to the editor in last week's Sun) that Seaboard rigs, sometimes one behind the other, travel uphill to the Tunnel at 4 miles per hour, Junge stated:

"In the first place, we go over the road faster than that. Since the cloverleaf was constructed at Orinda, the situation is relieved tremendously. I can't agree that we go only at 4 miles an hour. I'd venture to say we rolled up that hill at 15 miles per hour.

"Furthermore, our drivers have strict instructions that, if one of them is following another, there must be 300 feet between the trucks. There are severe penalties for violating these instructions."

THE SEABOARD owner declared it is to the firm's benefit, as well as that of the general public, to avoid accidents.

He admitted that his firm had not discussed such problems "for over a year" with the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation and the Contra Costa Commuters Association, but said such discussions had been held in the past. He added:

"We'd be very happy to talk again with them. We're willing and eager to cooperate."

JUNGE SAID that he would be in Seattle for a couple of weeks, but that contacts could be made with his general manager at the Seaboard office in Antioch, M. E. Snyder, or to Herbert Linderman, secretary-treasurer, also at the Antioch office. The phone number there is Antioch 913.

"Of course, if I'm around, I'll be happy to discuss the problem," he said.

His own commuting takes him sometimes to San Francisco and sometjmes to Antioch, Junge explained.

"When I go to San Francisco, it's generally 7 or 7:30 a.m.," he said. "I personally check on the movements of our trucks in the Crossroads area."

'We've really cooperated," he continued. "I don't think you can please everybody all the time."

Vol. XIII, No. 26 — Lafayette — Orinda, California — Friday, September 9, 1955 — Ten Cents

THIS AMUSING LIL' OLE FELLER, dubiously blessed with the name "Dirty Shirt," is the creation of Joe Idelson of 21 Gladys Court, Walnut Creek, who was inspired by the characterization by Don Sherwood of TV fame. Upon seeing the puppet, Sherwood made it a permanent part of his show "San Francisco Tonight."

WC Man Delights Viewers With 'Dirty Shirt' Puppet

Anyone who owns a radio or television set knows the name of Don Sherwood. His early morning radio show gives listeners coffee-break jokes; his Monday through Friday "San Francisco Tonight" show on KGO-TV keeps viewers up to 11:30 every night.

A very exciting contribution was made recently to the Sherwood's successful TV program by Joe Idelson of 21 Gladys Court, Walnut Creek.

EVER SINCE SHERWOOD took over his channel 7 venture, Idelson has been one of his most ardent fans. One of mimic Sherwood's best characterizations has been "Dirty Shirt" who was never seen, the voice being done by Sherwood with a desert scene as background.

One night, after finishing his scene, the famous comedian remarked that it might be fun to have a contest sometime to see what "Dirty Shirt" looked like.

Joe didn't wait for the contest.

THE VERY NEXT DAY he went to work on a puppet, completing it within a few days. Then Joe and his interpretation of "Dirty Shirt" journeyed to KGO-TV where both were joyfully received by a delighted Sherwood and his staff.

Thrill of thrills for Joe was when Sherwood, completely sold on the puppet, opened the show that night with a "Dirty Shirt" that all could see and appreciate.

But there's more! Joe was then interviewed on the show and received a terrific ovation from a very pleased audience.

IT SEEMS a pretty sure thing that Joe's puppet of "Dirty Shirt" is now a permanent fixture on "San Francisco Tonight."

If TV viewers finds "Dirty Shirt" fascinating they are sure to find his construction more so.

But first a few more words about the clever puppet maker from Sun Valley. Joe has been a resident of Walnut Creek for 4½ years. He is a commercial advertising artist. This was his first venture in puppet making.

THE MATERIALS used are fantastic and amusing, including such items as paper clips, Q-tips, beads, starch and some 30 more odd substances.

People are saying. "Maybe 'Dirty Shirt' will be ABC's answer to Howdy Doody, hmmmm?"

Plans for Warford Mesa Outlined Before Chamber

Just prior to the County Planning Commission's approval of improvement plans for Warford Mesa Tuesday night, Fred Maisel of K. R. Maisel outlined plans for the tract's development at the Tuesday noon meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at The Willows.

He said 327 lots were planned, with homes in the $20,000 price range. Some lots will be reserved for custom-built homes, but most will be constructed from designs planned by Albert R. Muth and Sons. Al Warford is the subdivider with the Muth organization.

The subdivision is located south of Mt. Diablo Boulevard and east of the Crossroads area.

Maisel said the mest would be one of the most beautiful developments in California, but is on an extremely difficult site for building, with such hilly terrain.

The first unit will be comprised of 97 homes, and Maisel said a model home should be ready for inspection in about 90 days.

Minimums in each home will be three bedrooms and two baths. A quarter of a million cubic yards of earth have already been moved for just the first unit.

The entire development will cover 250 acres and represent an investment of $6½ million. There will be no commercial zone.

Plant Locaters Request Meeting

The plant locating and site development committees of the Contra Costa County Development Association have requested a meeting with the Board of Supervisors and the County Planning Commission for the purpose of clarifying commission position and legal requirements on industrial sites.

Policy expression is likely to be asked on location of acceptable industries near residential areas, committee members pointing to electronics plant and kindred establishments that have located in San Mateo County and add importantly to that county's tax base and job list. The question has been aroused by two electronics plants abandoning Contra Costa consideration after having indicated to them that their installations were not desired in the area they favored.

"We want a general discussion of planning commission restrictions and limitations of the law" Chairman Robert Claxton of the plant locating committee said. "There is no clash. There is desire for knowledge and understanding. We want to be able to give industries answers they want and to give them we must first have expressions from the Board of Supervisors and the planning commission."

Help Promised Against Shooting In Lost Valley

Residents of Lost Valley were assured Tuesday that the sheriff's office will aid them in halting the indiscriminate shooting in the area, apparently by hunters.

Appearing before the Board of Supervisors, Dr. D. E. Gormley of 43 Lost Valley Drive, president of the Lost Valley Community Association, complained that efforts to halt the dangerous shooting had been unsuccessful.

Only fruitless patrolling by sheriff's cars and a threat of a beating by one hunter whom he reported had resulted, he said.

HE ASKED whether, to supplement state game laws prohibiting shooting within 150 yards of a residence or farm building, a county ordinance could be adopted, forbidding shooting in residential areas.

The supervisors suggested that Dr. Gormley confer with the district attorney's office.

After he did so, Dr. Gormley returned to the board room and told the supervisors that, rather than seek a new county ordinance, he and his neighbors will try to get their neighborhood posted to prevent trespass by hunters.

Also, they will continue to call on the sheriff's office for assistance, he said.

SHERIFF'S MEN present promised that their office will cooperate in the effort.

At one point Board Chairman H. L. Cummings remarked, "Maybe after the duck season ends, the shooting won't be quite so indiscriminate."

Oil, Gas Well Drilling Starts Near San Ramon

Full-time drilling in the search for gas and oil in Central Contra Costa County started Monday when the Buttes Gas and Oil Co. Inc. began operation in San Ramon Valley.

The first well, located on the Fred Wiedemann Ranch a mile and a half east of the town of San Ramon, will go to 9000 feet. It should be rigged up for the first "big test" today, according to O. G. Green, president and general manager.

GREEN HAS BEEN interested in this area as an active producer of gas and oil for many years. He drilled a well in Orinda in 1929 which produced no results.

He commented, however, "If we had known then what we know now there would have been no question of striking oil."

His studies have been confirmed by N. L. Taliaferro, professor of geology at the Unievrsity of California who is also consulting geologist for the firm.

Green's firm has leased approximately 11,000 acres, "over 80 per cent of the possible productive areas," according to Green.

STANDARD OIL of California, Tidewater Associated Oil, Humble Oil and Refining Co. and the Texas Company represent holders of the remaining 20 per cent.

None of these firms have drilled as yet.

The belief that oil exists in this area has been based on geological studies and the fact that impressive gas seepages have occurred in wells and on the surface. Live oil seepage has also been observed in creek bottoms adjacent to the drilling area.

"We have nothing for sale," said Green. "Our company is completely financed."

An old hand at drilling, Green has sunk wells in Sutter County and produced the first gas well in Northern California. This was near the Marysville Buttes in 1933.

Area May Have Vets Hospital

A new multi-million dollar Veterans Administration Hospital has been recommended for the Orinda-Lafayette-Moraga area, to replace the present Oakland Veterans hospital, it was disclosed Friday.

Dr. W. S. Middleton, chief medical director of the Veterans Administration in Washington, D.C., who tured the proposed site area last July, said this morning that he has recommended that a new hospital be built in the area.

He said he could not disclose the exact location until the final decision to build was made by Harvey V. Higley, administrator of veteran's affairs.

Dr. Middleton and Col. R. E. Edgar, chief of the VA construction service, were conducted on their site tour by Victor W. Sauer, Contra Costa County chief engineer. Two weeks later H. B. Candee, VA sanitation engineer, and Col. William Z. Bowie, VA real estate director, followed up with a tour of their own.

The chief obstacle in the path of building in the Orinda-Lafayette-Moraga trjangle has been a ruling by Civil Defense Authorities that any new hospital mut be situated 30 miles from Oakland. Oakland has been declared a critical target area.

However, it was learned that Val Peterson, national Civil Defense director, has unofficially given his OK to the proposed Contra Costa County site on the grounds that the "hills offer excellent natural shielding in event of an A-bomb attack."

Morrish Home Appraisal Filed

An appraisal listing part of the estate of Will F. Morrish was filed Wednesday with County Clerk Walter Paasch.

It fixes a $35,000 value on the home of the former president of the Bank of America at 239 Glorietta Boulevard.

Morrish died April 26 at the age of 72.

Office District Hearing Will Be Held October 20

Public hearing before the County Board of Supervisors on the County Planning Commission's recommendation that provision for administrative office districts be added to the county zoning ordinance will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, October 20, in Martinez.

Time and date of the hearing were scheduled by the board Tuesday.

The resolution by the Planning Commission recommended adoption of an administrative office district amendment to the zoning ordinance. The amendment would be countywide in application.

ITS IMMEDIATE effect would be to clear the way for action on Pacific Intermountain Express Company's rezoning application for its 10½-acre Pine Grove property in Orinda, where PIE plans to erect a $750,000 office headquarters.

The Orinda Association, through its Orinda Homeowners Committee, is conducting a drive urging the people to "keep Orinda residential" by opposing plans for any future businesses in Orinda which would not serve the immediate needs of the local populace.

The following types of buildings would be allowed in administrative office districts, according to Principal County Planner H. Russell Griffith:

ADMINISTRATIVE, executive, professional, editorial and governmental offices; research institutes, laboratories for experimental study and testing but with no manufacturing; professional offices and laboratories for medical-dental office buildings, provided that there be no retail sales (thus prohibiting a pharmacy).

Minimum lot area would be 5 acres. Not more than 15 per cent of a lot could be covered by the building area.

Setbacks would be 100 feet from any public road. Sideyards would be a minimum of 50 feet on each side—except that sideyards of 100 feet would be required at external boundaries of an administrative office district where the district abuts on a residential zone.

Guild Will Hear Library Speaker

Bertha Hellum, Contra Costa County librarian, will speak on county library problems before Guild 3 of the Orinda Community Church Wednesday at the home of Virginia Hunter.

Mrs. Hellum will address the group following lunch. A work meeting is scheduled beforehand at 10 a.m.

Cemetery Permits Granted by County

Two permits for proposed cemeteries in the Reliez Valley area, which have been subjects of controversy for some time, were granted Tuesday night by the County Planning Commission.

One was to the Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco for establishment of the Queen of Heaven Cemetery on the 980-acre former J.J. Haviside property west of Reliez Valley Road.

The other was to Bilanco, Inc., for establishment of Oakmont Memorial Park on the 218-acre Van Cleave property west of Reliez Valley Road opposite Grayson Road and north of the Catholic cemetery property.

Four conditions were specified by the commission, to be met by both cemeteries. These are:

Five hundred-foot setbacks on all sides except their common boundary; entrance roads must allow sufficient room for funeral processions to form off Reliez Valley Road; the plan of roads within the cemeteries must be filed with the County Department of Public Works; a 40-foot right-of-way must be dedicated to the county for future widening of the road.

The commission also prohibits use of 30 acres on the west side of the Catholic cemetery as a burial ground.

This 30-acre section forms part of the East Bay Municipal Utility District's Briones Valley watershed.

Past President Tells Rotarians Of Foundation

George Eberhart, immediate past president of the Orinda Rotary Club, addressed that group Wednesday at its noon luncheon meeting at The Willows.

He gave a resume of the Rotary Foundation from its inception in 1913 up to the present.

To complement this short report, John Applequist of Berkeley, a beneficiary of the Rotary Foundation Fellowship, told of his experiences at Heidelburg University in Germany.

The club received a letter from the Putnam, Conn., Rotary Club, describing devastation from the recent hurricane and flood. A total of $55 was donated by those present at the meeting to be forwarded to Putnam.

Eberhart also acted as the day's program chairman.

Chamber Tries To Make It Safer For Pedestrians

The Orinda Chamber of Commerce voted to recommend moving of the pedestrian walk near the Orinda Theater closer to Vashell Way in line with a safety suggestion to the chamber from the County Public Works Director.

Also at its Tuesday noon meeting at The Willows, the chamber voted to send a letter to the public works director, Victor Sauer, to thank his office for the repaving of Brookwood Road.

HORACE BREED announced that signs have been ordered and will be posted in both of Orinda's business sections for one-hour parking. He said some stores and customers might be inconvenienced, but the measure was designed for the greatest good of the greatest number.

Speaking as a member of the parking authority, Breed said the move conformed to recommendations resulting from county parking studies.

Ernie Poll asked if anything could be arranged for off-street parking in the Village. President Ned deLaveaga appointed Poll to head a commitee to deal with the subject.

A PROPOSAL by Thomas Bros. to publish a map of Orinda was discussed. Clarence Betz was asked to investigate costs.

Stan Allen, Walt Friberg and Mrs. Ben Mallory were appointed to a committee to investigate traffic safety at the intersection of Brookwood Road and the underpass road.

Friberg and Tom Horton were nominated as directors to fill the unexpired terms of George Conner and George Bauslaugh. PG&E transferred Conner to Walnut Creek, and Pacific Telehone and Telegraph transferred Bauslaugh. Their terms expire next May.

That Torch Was Zorch for Scorch

September started out in Orinda carrying the torch for zooming scorchers, reaching a torrid 110-degree temperature last Friday.

As this week progressed, the readings went down to the comfortable mid-80s, the weatherman reported.

There was no rain.

Here are the high and low temperatures for the week up to yesterday morning:

Board Keeps 'Windfall' For Sewer Improvements

Attacks from two sources only caused the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District board to reaffirm its decision to retain the district's "windfall money," resulting from a maximum 60-cent tax rate.

At its September 1 meeting, the board was urged by Harry L. Morrison and Leslie Carbert of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association, and Joseph McFarland and Ivan Gilman, representing the Pleasant Hill Civic Council, to set aside additional money received by retaining the maximum tax rate despite a 35 per cent increase in assessments.

THEY SAID the money could contribute to a reduction in taxes next year. This year's rate cannot be changed now.

McFarland and Gilman argued the board's retention of the 60-cent rate in view of the increased assessed valuation was detrimental to the public, an example of bad faith and would have an adverse effect on passage of a future bond issue.

Morrison urged board endorsement of the proposal. Carbert said he was disappointed by the board's action but that if the full amount raised is needed the board should justify it with a detailed explanation to the taxpayers.

DISTRICT DIRECTORS said the "windfall money" is still far below the amount actually needed for system correction work demanded by the East Bay Municipal Utility District and state health agencies. Noting failure of a previous district bond election, directors said other sources of financing had to be found.

EBMUD has protested for several years against overflow from the district's lines into the San Pablo and Upper San Leandro watersheds and demanded remedial action.

Chairman Irving Roemer and director Ernest Spiegl cited threats of possible legal action by EBMUD and the state if the district does not "spend every dime available" to effect remedial measures.

ROEMER AND MacFarland became incolved in a verbal tiff when Roemer suddenly interrupted with:

"Mr. MacFarland, if you worked half as hard to convince your people of our district needs as you spend in critizing this board you'd accomplish a great deal more."

McFarland retorted, "If we chose just to take swings at you we'd go about it differently. We come down here to your meetings, staying until midnight trying to work with you. I resent that."

Miramonte High Has 170 Students

Some 170 Orinda-area youngsters are enrolled as the first freshman class at Miramonte High School, Principal James Lewis reports.

The first-year school, newest plant in the Acalanes High School District, opened Tuesday.

The present students may be a somewhat lonely class — but each year they will have more companions, until in their senior year Miramonte will be a full four-year high school.

Development of the Miramonte plant is planned along the order of Las Lomas High School's growth in Walnut Creek — additional units being added each year for the next three years, so that an entire new class enters the school each year.

By the 1958-59 school year there will be freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes at Miramonte.

District Pupils To Number 2215 For School Start

Beginning fall classes Monday in the Orinda School District will be approximately 2215 pupils, according to Superintendent Joseph Sheaff.

He said that Orinda School would be the district's largest until the new Pine Grove School, scheduled to be completed in the latter part of October, takes in Orinda's seventh and eighth graders. About 400 pupils will make this switch, reducing Orinda enrollment considerably from the 771 total forecast for Monday.

The new Sleepy Hollow School will house 502 pupils. Finishing touches on the building caused all district schools to have their openings postponed from Tuesday.

Glorietta School will have an enrollment of 550, and Del Rey School 392.

Double Appeal On Thomas Will Be Heard Monday

Double-barreled appeal — from both sides — against the County Planning Commission's granting of a land use application to Dr. W. F. Thomas for a professional building at the southeast corner of Moraga Highway and Southwood Drive will be heard by the Board of Supervisors at 11 a.m. Monday in Martjnez.

Thirty-seven objectors to the permit, represented by Attorney Gladys Schwatka, appeal on the grounds that the two-story office building, with a pharmacy on the first floor, would have the effect of "nullifying the intent and purpose of the master plan" and that off-street parking (three parking spaces for each professional suite) would be insufficient, resulting in increased traffic hazards.

Dr. Thomas, through his attorney, Carlisle Nielsen, objects to the 25-foot setback requirement and ask for a 10-foot setback requirement.

Nielsen contends that the 25-foot setback restriction would hinder accomplishment of maximum off-street parking on the lot.

Mrs. Schwatka announced this week that she has been retained by the group of residents protesting the granting of the permit.

Sewer District Giving Breakdown

A detailed breakdown of expenditures planned on emergency projects from extra money raised by Central Contra Costa Sanitary District's retention of the maximum tax rate is being prepared by Engineer G. A. Horstkotte Jr.

Directors authorized preparation of the tabulation after being criticized for not reducing the 60-cent tax rate to compensate for a State-ordered 35 per cent increase in Contra Costa County assessed valuation.

Caravan Ready to Wheeze and Snort

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Coffee, 4060 Los Araabis Drive, will drive their 1914 Lozier Touring Car on an "international' 'horseless carriage trek from Los Angeels to Ensenada in Old Maxico and back, today through Monday.

Garbed in the colorful motoring costumes of the pre-1915 era, they will drive their ancient but beautifully restored automobile in a caravan of more than 100 show piece antique cars owned by members of the Horseless Carriage Club of America, a sizable group of old car fanciers.

The caravan will begin its wheezing, snorting, 209-mile trip at the Mobilgas garage in downtown Los Angeles this morning. With luck the group will reach Capistrano Beachcombers Club by noon, and he survivors will traggle into San Diego by evening.

Crossing the Mexican-United States border at Tiajuana tomorrow, the caravan hopes to reach Rosarito Beach by noon. If clutches, bicycle-sized tires and coughing engines hold out, the caravan will reach Ensenada by night. After dinner in the Riviera Pacifico, the group will indulge in dancing, Mexican style, in competition for prizes.

The return trip begins Sunday, following a Mexican dishes luncheon given by General Petroleum Corporation. No stops are scheduled on the return trip, except for a coffee break at Halfway House, until San Diego.

The award banquet, at which time prizes for the best cars and the best costumes will be awarded, will be held Sunday night at the El Cortez, San Diego. General Petroleum again is sponsoring the banquet, as it has in previous years.

The parade of antique cars will include single-cylindered models that represented some of Detroit's first attempts, up to 12-cylinder V-engine types that appeared just prior to 1915. Entrants in the tour will come from dozens of California cities and towns, some from as far as the states of Nevada, Washington and Kansas.

Davis Will Preside Over SF Convention

OFFICIAL OPENING of the new headquarters of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County at 3462 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, will occur tomorrow, with Congressman John F. Baldwin as guest of honor. Viewing the structure and some of the final details of landscaping are, left to right, Frederick Kracke, executive vice-president; Allen Fuller, member of the building committee, and Garry Grover, association president and member of the building committee.

'Progress Basis for Growth Of Contractors Association'

Home building in Contra Costa County in 1938 was not exactly "booming." However, at that time a group of builders got together to form an association of home builders with the idea that a coordinated effort would be the answer to everyone interested in home building — the builder, the seller and the buyer — according to President Garry Grover of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County.

Almost on the eve of National Home Week, tomorrow through September 18, Grover said:

"With the coming of World War II and its conclusion, there was a definite need for additional housing in order to take care of war workers and later the ever-increasing inflow of population.

"CONTRA COSTA County was an ideal setting for some of this new building because of its proximity to the metropolitan area and the newly acquired desire of people to live in the suburbs."

Grover recalled that in 1946 the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, Inc., became affiliated with the National Association of Home Builders with a charter for all of Contra Costa County.

Until 1949 the office of the association was in Richmond. Headquarters were moved to Walnut Creek, where it was felt the office would be in the center of activity.

"AS THE COUNTY grew," Grover continued, "the problems involving housing became manifold. The association was naturally called upon to work with the various county agencies. The Planning Commission, Flood Control District, Sanitary District, to name a few, required attention prior to any specific issue being presented to the Board of Supervisors.

"This cooperation by the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County has been and will continue to be a help to the growth of the county."

Executive Secretary Ernest D. Holly, pointed out that since the end of World War II the association has worked with the Veterans Administration and the Federal Housing Administration in an effort to insure smoother processing of home loan applications.

"ONE OF THE MOST important but least known activities of the association is the part it takes in labor negotiations between the employees' groups and the crafts involved in home building," Grover said.

"Any successful organization will grow through natural processes," Grover went on. "This is just such an organization, which decided that the time had come to build its own headquarters building.

"THE JOB WAS completed through the cooperation of the members, and the new building will be open for business Monday at 3462 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

"Frederick C .Kracke, executive vice-president; Ernest D. Holly, executive secretary, and Mrs. Lydia Stewart, office secretary, will be better equipped to serve the members and public."

Caswell Returns To Track Tonight

Still a favorite of the local fans although now living in San Anselmo, Bob Caswell, former Walnut Creek hard top driver, is rated a strong contender for tonight's 25-lap main event at Contra Costa Speedway.

Caswell returned to action last week after spending two months on the sidelines with a broken left wrist suffered in a smashup at the local speedway. The former Walnut Creek ace, wearing a leather brace on his wrist, qualified for last week's main event and showed no signs of being "gun shy."

In his comeback race, Caswell was involved in another crackup. His car remained upright, but the racer driven by Oakland's PeeWee Waybright rolled over twice. Both drivers will be in action at the wheels of the same cars tonight.

Ram Grid Squad Looks Good to Coach Hal Briggs

Coach Hal Briggs of the Pleasant Hill Rams is definitely in an optimistic mood regarding his varsity squad of 40 players whom he has been sending through drills the past two weeks.

The squad, on the light side, looks to be better than last year's which played some good ball in their first try at the varsity brand of ball.

Such players as Jim Nixon, a standout end of last year, and Jim McMillan, who ripped off many a yard in the backfield, are back for another year of play and should give the Pleasant Hill eleven a start on the right foot.

STEVE BUCKMAN, back at quarterback, has handled and heaved the pigskin oval in good style for early season.

All of this gives the Rams a good chance to work out a smooth functioning offense.

Lineups are a daily shifting thing that probably will be greately settled after a game-type scrimmage scheduled for either today or tomorrow.

LIKE THEIR neighbors Las Lomas, it looks as if a good many positions will be held down by a fine crop of sophomores and juniors.

The line average looks to be around 160, while the backs will go around 155.

One of the biggest assets of the squad is better than average speed, which could go a long way toward compensating for a lack of weight.

THE OPENING GAME on the practice schedule finds the Rams hosting the Alhambra Bulldogs under the lights of the Mt. Diablo field next Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Tots Fashion Magnin's New Young Line

The public has been cordially invited by Joseph Magnin of Walnut Creek to a delightful "Fashion Show for Children" to be held at the chic Magnin headquarters in the Broadway Shopping Center, tonight at 7 to 8 p.m.

A precious line-up of petite femme models will strut the spotlite runway to display the season's most fashionable collection of back-to-school, party and play apparel, announces Magnin's manager, Plin Flippen.

The show, to take place in the children's department, will concentrate on what smart young Contra Costa ladies, ages 4 to 12, will be wearing for the new school year.

Flippen brightly named the following six lovely tid-bits as those who will graciously display Magnin's stunning children's costumes.

They are Molly Morrison, Patsy Hersch, Joan Clifford, Amy Turrington, Patty Gurney and Mary Harris.

Final plans will also be made for the Drama Tea the club will hold September 27 at the Alpha Chi Omega chapter house at Berkeley.

All Alpha Chi Omegas in the Diablo area are invited to attend the meeting. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Turk, CL 4-2411, or Mrs. G. Wayne Bentley, CL 4-3640.

Islands to Come To Robert Road

Orinda's Pandora Chapter of Children's Home Society will welcome guests for cocktails from 4 to 7 p.m. September 17 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Houston, 1 Robert Road.

Flowers flown from Hawaii will be worn by Pandora members acting as hostesses, and flowers will float in the pool to help carry out the Hawaiian theme.

The affair will serve as a "welcome home" for many Orinda couples who have traveled extensively during the summer months or vacationed at summer homes.

Among the expected guests are Messrs. and Mesdames A. W. Clement, William Sheehan, Allan Kelsey, Fred Nielsen, John Jenswold, Mel Nickerson, Robert Lyman, William Tildsley, Standish Massie and Charles Erickson.

The benefit party will aid Children's Home Society, now in its 65th year as the oldest private adoption agency in California.

W. D. Goheen Chosen Police Radio Chief

Contra Costa Sheriff Harry A. Brown announced September 1 the appointment of William D. Goheen of 278 Evelyn Drive, Pleasant Hill, as chief radio technician of the sheriff's department.

Folk Dancers Plan Festival At WC Park

Committees of the Mt. Diablo Council of Folk Dance and Square Dance Clubs have been working this summer on the plans for their annual Folk Dance Festival, whose theme is "Dancin' for Fun," to be given at the Walnut Creek City Park on September 18.

Bill Wakeman, general chairman and president of the council, is being aided by Marge Underwood, program content; Ernie Coleman, program arrangement and printing; Taylor Holt, square dance callers; Glenn Ward, sound and advertising; Virginia Wilder, publicity; Isadore Ottovich, records and Dick Bonner, hospitality.

THE PROGRAM, which is divided into two sessions of general dancing, 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m., is primarily made up of folk dances and square dances that can be done by all folk dancers. During the dinner break there will be an hour of Kolas directed by John Filcich, the eastbay's authority on this particular type of folk dance. Also, during the afternoon sessions, there will be exhibition folk dances performed by four folk dance clubs.

The performers will be wearing costumes representing the country of the dance they are doing.

The Kolas, which will be performed one hour prior to the evening session, are indigenous to the countries near the northeastern shores of the Mediterranean Sea. These dances are normally performed in lines rather than as couples and the lines weave and serpentine about the floor as the dance progresses.

IN GENERAL, all the dancers perform the same step throughout the dance but, in some dances, the dancer has the option of doing variations of the step.

In the Greek Kola, a man is designated as the leader and performs a series of intricate steps while the remainder of the dancers do a basic step in order to give the leader the rhythm of the dance.

Youth Hall Group Cake Sale Success

The recent cake sale held by the Juvenile Hall auxiliary was deemed a success with total proceeds approximating $75.

This will enable them to begin work on a play area. The 10 or so cakes that had not been sold at the close of the day were turned over to the hall to be placed in their freezer and used as birthday cakes.

Summer Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

'TWAS A LABORIOUS LABOR DAY WEEKEND indeed at 79 Wistful Vista (a.k.a. Loma Vista). What w/our own temperature vying for hottest honors w/the soaring one outside, the Man of our House had little time for relaxation. We topped our temp at a delirious 103 degrees and wonder if it all didn't stem from sleeping outside on the chaise last sweltering Thurs. eve. From conversations and complaints overheard, it could well be presumed that many others did the same, suffering the same results, or at least a good stiff crick in the back, neck, or maybe just a slight subber tode.

FROM UNDER OUR ICE CAP . . . we remembered that we saw Dr. and Mrs. Robert McELIGOT househunting several weekends in a row. Mrs. McE.'s s'il vous plait, is a real French War Bride and is anticipating a visit from her Mother who is expected to arrive from Nice, France shortly.

While Betsy Ann KILBURN did her summer crafts and canoeing at the "Four Winds" Camp on Puget Sound, mater Betsy KILBURN was busy consulting color charts, fabric samples, and paint tones having undertaken a decorating job for the new wing the Channing KILBURNS added to their Sleepy Hollow home this summer.

The Kerry KERESEYS of Orchard Road have had a continual flow of family-callers, coming here to pay court to their Fourth of July baby, a third little man which they have named Timothy.

OUR BEDSIDE WINDOW FEATURING Orinda in 3-D gave many indications that half of our countryfolk took off for other parts for the holiday. . . . Lola and Frank TEBBS of La Espiral just back from a Santa Barbara pleasure trip and the William THURSTONS finished up a southland stay coming in early Labor Day from La Jolla, La Mesa and San Diego.

THE ROBERT THAMANS and the George HAUERS combined forces, families and food supplies for a week's camping high in the mountains at Weber Lake, and Ann and Ten SANFORD spent the weekend visiting friends in Sacramento, taking two-out to attend the State Fair, which must have lured many we didn't hear about, since" Big John and Sparky" were among the leading entertainment attractions. (Thees two are prime favorites of youngsters who still listen to RADIO—remember?)

Lois and Gerald PIXLEY hibernated to Strawberry Lake for a week's stay.

BETWEEN DOSES OF ASPIRIN and achromycin, we found some notes we had made under more normal conditions . . . Bob and "Mike" ROTH and their three children had two weeks of fun at the family place in Felton in the Santa Cruz Mts. . . . Volney and Rose HOWARD acquired those deep tans from seeing plenty of action on the Monterey Peninsula tennis courts. . . . Orinda School's musical director, Sara SABELMAN spent six of her summer weeks w/the Robert Shaw Choral Workshop in San Diego. Miss Sabelman's further summer travels included visits to both OLD and NEW Mexico where she found life in Taos, N. M., the Artists Colony, both colorful and culture-ful! Carol HARRISON telling friends about son George's exciting summer travels to Japan where he broke the world's record in the Butterfly, his specialty, at the Tokyo Meet.

EVEN THE KIDS BROUGHT SOME BEDSIDE "Briefs" . . . that Jim and Millie WINFREE, fromerly of W.C. have moved into their new home on THE curve on Loma Vista w/their three sons. . . . Our Collie's comment: "Grrumph, No Dog!"

Lucy Ann HUPP and her mild-mannered horse "Don" are available for "party-hire" or special-treats, in case you care to make a note of it for future ref. . . . Lucy Ann's phone—CL 4-5407!

Twelve-year-old Sylvia HOWES swam the length of Strawberry Lake during the family's recent six-week sojourn there. . . Andrew PLUMB, known to the Nursery School Set as "Andy" celebrated his 4th B'day last Sat. afternoon by hosting a party of young men to the BIG SHOW, the Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey Circus at the Cow Palace. One of the little guests queried "Where all the cows who live in this cow's palace?" Lorrie Flenner, 3rd grader, had herself a Birthday Party this week, too!

OVER A PITCHER OF FRUIT JUICE, we pondered. . . . Recalled that recent guests at the Los Laureles Lodge in Carmel Valley were the Del FAGERS or Orchard Road. . . . The W. C. JUDGES signed the registry for a recent respite there, too. . . The Robert ANGELLS gave a small dinner party recently for Wash. D.C.'ers, the Loring SCHULERS. . . . Quite a thrilling experience for Vernon LOUIS, who "shot" the rapids while vacationing in Oregon this summer.

THROUGH OUR LOOKING GLASS, we foresee some wonderful surprises in store for the young fry, when Oakland's Fabulous Fairyland, which celebrated its Fifth B'day last wknd. (Were YOU there?) makes some charming additions. The most incredible dream-come-true of all of them will be the underground "Alice in Wonderland" which will require entry through a real rabbit hole. So Long! Goodbye! Like the rushing rabbit, we're late, we're late!

Go to Church Sunday

Mormon

Christ gave the highest tribute ever spoken of truth. He said, ". . . the truth shall make you free." (John 8:32). The lesson on "Truth" as found in "Christ's Ideals for Living" will be the lesson subject to be discussed in the Mormon adult class under the able direction of Grant Powell, adult teacher, this Sunday at 1:30 p.m., the new Sunday school meeting time, in Orinda Community Church.

President Thomas Stuart Ferguson wishes to make a special announcement for Sunday, September 25. In place of the usual Sunday school class work, the entire Sunday school time, after the preliminary exercises, will be given over to hear a lecture by Dr. Milton H. Brinton, assistant chief surgeon of the United States Public Health Service Hospital in San Francisco.

Dr. Brinton will speak on the vital and timely subject of "Tobacco and Cancer." This early announcement is being made, and will be repeated, in order that firends, members and neighbors, may reserve that date. The time will be 1:30 p.m. in Orinda Community Church, Moraga Highway.

The Primary comprises children 4 to 11 inclusive and any new children to be entered, or who might need transportation to attend, may call Mrs. Altha McManus, Primary president at CL 4-3583.

Lutheran

"Faith Healing" is the sermon topic the Rev. Edward R. Andersen, pastor of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, will speak on at the 8 and 11 a.m. services at the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church in Orinda Sunday. Healing by faith has always been a controversial, but interesting, subject.

The Sunday school meets at 9:30 Sunday morning with a class for each age group and an adult class for parents and friends who wish to worship at the 9:30 hour. All children who intend to take part in the Sunday school program this year are asked to register for the fall and winter term so the new classes can be formed and started on September 18, Rally Sunday.

Friday evening, September 23, the organizations of the church ar inviting everyone to on open family night which will be Liberian in theme and the dinner and program of the evening will be centered around the mission in that country, according to the general chairman, Mrs. Angus Oliphant.

The Women of the Church, the Sunday school the, parents and friends of the church will all take part and the Rev. George R. Flora, pastor of Bethany Lutheran Church in San Jose, the former missionary to Liberia, will be the guest speaker for the evening.

Those who have newly moved to the community or those who have not established a regular church home are invited to come and worship and take part in the fall program which is just now getting started.

Episcopal

In a surprise announcement, the Rev. Charles M. Hill, vicar of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda, tendered his resignation at a special meeting of the Bishop's Committee on Sunday morning, after the Holy Communion Service.

Rev. Hill, who accepted the leadership of the new Contra Costa mission three years ago, will become rector of Christ Church in Las Vegas under the authority of the Rt. Rev. William F. Lewis, Bishop of the Missionary District of Nevada. Bishop Lewis and Mr. Hill have been friends for approximately 30 years, both being active in youth and rehabilitation work.

While still head of Trinity Church in Victoria, Texas., Rev. Hill was asked to take over the Las Vegas parish, but he felt he could best serve the Orinda congregation in their quest for a permanent church building, a regular vicar, and an established schedule of worship and religious activities.

In Las Vegas, Mr. Hill will embark on a giant building program, only one quarter of the anticipated church plant being completed, and the second quarter being let out for contractors' bids at the present time.

The finished church buildings are expected to reach a third of a million dollars, and will include a small chapel, the curate's apartment, recreation hall and kitchen, young people's section and library, as well as the main church which will seat approximately 400 persons. The entire building will be arranged around a central fountain and patio, in old Spanish style.

The Rev. Charles Hill will conduct his last service in Orinda October 17.

Presbyterian

"Lord of All or Not at All," eighth in the series of Portraits from The Book of Luke, will be the subject of the sermon by the Rev. W. Carl Thomas, pastor of the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church, Sunday at 9:30 and 11 at the Park Theater, Lafayette.

There is a nursery provided for infants up to two years at the Ray Dear home, 1105 Laurel Drive for the 9:30 service. Toddlers and kindergarten nursery for the 11 o'clock service is at Lafayette Town Hall.

Sunday School calsses are held at the Lafayette Town Hall for two year olds and older at 9:30 a.m. at Town Hall.

Crossroads Potluck will be held tonight at 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bernard, 37 Tara Road, Orinda.

A series of classes on "The Nature of the Christian Faith" will begin Sunday at 6:30 at the Town Hall, and will continue for five Sunday evenings. This course is required for church memebrship and is also held without obligation for any who want to investigate the truth of Christianity.

A series of films of the Moody Institute of Science will be shown beginning Sunday at 8 p.m. at the Lafayette Town Hall. The titles listed in the series are: "Dust or Destiny," "Hidden Treasures," "God of Creation" and "Prior Claim."

Lutheran

"Reacting to a Sermon" will be the theme of the sermon by Pastor Merle Tollefson, of Our Savior's Lutheran Church, 1035 Carol Lane, Sunday. There will be two identical worship services 8:15 and 11 a.m. This Sunday is Rally Day, the opening day of the new semester's Sunday School.

The hours will b 9:30 for grades four through senior high school and the Adult Bible Class culminating in a Junior Worship Service at 10:15. The preschool through third grade will meet as usual during the 11 a.m. worship service.

Tuesday evening at 8, the Women's Missionary Federation will meet in the Church Fellowship hall. The board of trustees will also meet Tuesday at 8 p.m.; Wednesday at 8 p.m. "Bible Study in the Home," meeting at various homes throughout the community, will gather again for study, discussion and fellowship. It will be Go to Church Sunday for the Job's Daughters group.

Seattle Relative Visits Albert Harts

A recent visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Hart, 737 Solana Drive, was William Hill Jr. of Seattle, a brother of Mrs. Hart.

'Mothers Only' at Nursery School's First Two Days

It will be "mothers only" the first two days of nursery school this year. Kiddies enrolled in the Orinda Cooperative Nursery School will have an extra day of vacation while their mothers attend a two-day orientation program to be held Monday for mothers of the Monday-Wednesday-Friday group and Tuesday for mothers of the Tuesday-Thursday group from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the school's quarters in the Orinda Community Church.

The orientation program will fill two needs, according to Mrs. William A. Patterson, nursery school director. It will take the place of the annual membership tea in providing an informal atmosphere for new and former members to become acquainted, and at the same time give cooperating mothers a preview of their duties on days of participation.

For the edification of participating mothers, three short films will be shown entitled "Understanding Children's Play," "When Should Grownups Help?" and "When Should Grown-ups Stop Fights?" The films have been especially chosen to answer questions most frequently asked by mothers helping at nursery school.

Officers directing the activities of the Orinda Nursery School this year are: Mrs. W. E. Estes, president; Mrs. Leonard Roth, vice-president and program; Mrs. Daryl Mitton, Monday-Wednesday-Friday treasurer; Mrs. Ned DeLaveaga, Tuesday-Thursday treasurer; Mrs. John J. Heafey Jr., secretary; Mrs. D. S. Manuel, maintenance; Mrs. Yates Bleuel, purchasing, and Mrs. Arthur Sassone, publicity.

Mesdames Harry E. Larsen, Gordon E. French and Robert K. Brorsen are representatives, and Mrs. Robert N. Hart is ex-officio honorary member.

Appointive officers are: Mrs. Harold L. Neeland, Monday-Wednesday-Friday membership; Mrs. Richard B. Kilner, Tuesday-Thursday membership; Mesdames R. D. McBane and Heber H. Smith, parent participation; Mrs. W. M. Sawyer, telephone; Dr. Betty Sibary, health; Mrs. J. F. Golden, education, and Mrs. Fenn J. Wilson, dance.

Mary Fielder to Speak at Diablo Campfire Girls Rally

Dick Rockwell, president of the Diablo Valley Council of Camp Fire Girls, Inc., will speak at a parents rally at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center, City Park, Thursday at 8 p.m. He extends a cordial welcome to all, who are interested in the Camp Fire program, to attend.

A native of Ottumwa, Iowa, Miss Fiedler is a graduate of Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill. She was previously head of the division of council operations in the department of Field Operations at Camp Fire Girls national headquarters in New York, and she is a former executive director of Camp Fire councils in Berkeley, Calif., Des Moines, Ia., and Minneapolis, Minn.

DURING HER LONG association with Camp Fire Miss Fiedler has done considerable research on youth recreation and home and community planning.

Her interest in Camp Fire Girls started while she was teaching in Illinois high schools when she became a volunteer leader of a group.

ALL WHO HAVE HEARD Miss Fiedler talk about Camp Fire referred to her as an inspired speaker, and have expressed great pleasure at having had the opportunity to hear her.

All interested people in the entire area served by Diablo Valley and Pleasant Hill councils are invited to attend and find out what the Camp Fire program is all about.

Refreshments will follow the program.

Diablo Red Cross Exceeds Quota

Over $3000 was raised for eastern flood relief by the Mount Diablo Chapter of the American National Red Cross.

This was over 300 per cent of the quota that had been set according to Robert I. Schroder, bond drive chairman.

No further contributions are being asked since this chapter was notified by National President Ellsworth Bunker, "The American people in a prompt and warmhearted way have raised the necessary $10,000,000 fund."

Adult Classes Start Monday

Registration for 62 adult education courses in the Acalanes High School District Adult Center will continue next week with some classes slated to start Monday. Registration may be completed Monday through Thursday evenings, 7 to 10 p.m. at 1200 Pleasant Hill Road.

In addition to the regular list of adult center courses, special work is available to students who wish to complete their high school education. Locations of classes include Acalanes High School, Las Lomas High School, Miramonte High School, Orinda Community Church, M. H. Stanley School and Walnut Creek Recreation Center.

Area USO Sends Out Call for Jr. Hostesses

Because of the greatly increased program of the Diablo Area USO Club held each week in the recreation building, City Park, Walnut Creek from 1 to 9 p.m. there is a great need for junior hostesses to assist with the entertainment of the armed forces attending the activities, Mrs. Leona Paul, USO junior hostess chairman, said today.

Girls can enroll if they are single and between the ages of 17 and 30. Two character references are required. The girls are interviewed individually and must pledge attendance at the junior hostess training course. They further must be willing to participate in requested USO duties either at the club or at Parks Air orce Base.

USO JUNIOR hostesses do not attend any activities where liquor is served and all hostesses are transported to the base activities in air force buses with senior chaperones in attendance. Though organized as a group, the junior hostesses are under adult leadership on all occasions.

Girls wishing to become junior hostesses can phone Mrs. Paul at YE 4-4198 or address a letter to her at 1009 Pleasant Valley Drive, Walnut Creek. They may also enquire at the Walnut Creek Recreation Building, City Park, Sundays from 1 to 8 p.m.

THE USO entertainment program makes no distinctions of race, creed or color and is made up of organizations representing the three major faiths, such as the Young Men's Christian Association, National Catholic Community Service, National Jewish Welfare Board, Young Women's Christian Association, The Salvation Army, National Travelers Aid Association and Camp Shows, Inc.

The Diablo Area USO Club is operated by The Salvation Army under the directorship of Senior Major Emil Miller. A group of citizens in the area make up the local USO Committee.

Christian Science

The vital importance of understanding God as the source of all true substance will be emphasized at services this Sunday in Churches of Christ, Scientist, 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

Readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Substance" will include the following passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (335:12): "Spirit is the only substance, the invisible and indivisible infinite God. Things spiritual and eternal are substantial. Things material and temporal are insubstantial."

The indestructible nature of spiritual substance is also stressed in selections to be read from the Bible, including the following: "I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it" (Eccl. 3:14 to 2d).

The Golden Text is from John (6:27: "Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed."

Area K.C. Will Hold Barbecue

The newly organized Lafayette Council of the Knights of Columbus will hold a barbecue tomorrow night at Tom Stack's home on North Peardale Drive, Lafayette, starting at 6:30.

Formed about six weeks ago, the new council is for the area embracing Lafayette, Orinda, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Danville, Canyon and Moraga. It is open to all Catholic men in the area, who can obtain more information from any of the officers.

Meetings are held the first and third Thursday night of each month at 8 o'clock, in the hall of St. Perpetua's Catholic Church at the end of Hamlin Road, Lafayette.

Officers include:

Grand knight, Al C. Weber Jr.; grand deputy knight, Tom Stack; recording secretary, J. Oliver Morgan; financial secretary, John Bartolero; treasurer, Robert Boaz; chancellor, William Kruse; lecturer, Herman Digneit; inside guard, Arch Favors; outside guard, Charles Luna; warden, Walter Brasch.

Trustees are Colonel Charles Buttler, John Zivic and Robert Bertrond. Marcelle Des Champs is advocate. The Rev. Thomas Collins is chaplain.

Famous Artist Will Address Local Art Group

Dong Kingman, an internationally recognized water colorist, will be guest speaker at a special meeting of the Diablo Art Association Monday, at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 1924 Walnut Avenue, Walnut Creek.

Kingman has been described by Life magazine as one of the country's foremost water colorists. This is in part to his unique style which results from a union of his Chinese art education and his lively impressions of America.

AN ACTIVE VOICE in the Voice of America programs, Kingman was honored in April of last year by being chosen as the State Department cultural emissary for the U.S. Information Service.

Traveling with 20 of his paintings and his ever-active pallette, he lectured, exhibited, and demonstrated his technique from Japan to India. Among the highlights of his trip were reunion with his son, a sergeant with the 1st Marine Division in Korea, and with old art teacher Sze-To Wai in Hong Kong.

HIS FIVE MONTHS tour was such a success that others have been sent to follow him through the Orient.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Jewish Sunday School Sign-up Time Is Here

The approach of the Jewish New Year marks the time for registration in Sunday School at the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center.

Classes will be resumed Sunday at 9:30 a.m. with an interesting program of studies and attractive activities for children of public school age, according to Rabbi Bernard Ducoff, newly selected religious leader.

Jessica Tandy In Geary Play

One of the season's most eagerly-awaited plays, boasting a brilliant cast headed by Jessica Tandy, Hume Cronyn and Dennis King, is "A Day by the Sea," which arrived at the Geary Theatre Monday, for two weeks only prior to a Broadway engagement.

Huntington Hartford and Stephen Mitchell are presenting the new play which enjoyed a tremendous success in London for 18 months.

Jessica Tandy, who portrays a disillusioned widow and divorcee in "A Day by the Sea," has been hailed for her characterization of Branche DuBois in "A Streetcar Named Desire" and Agnes in "The Fourposter," both of which she created on Broadway.

Hume Cronyn, who made theatrical history with Miss Tandy in that endearing comedy, "The Fourposter," and long a national favorite by virtue of his character portrayals in many films, will be seen as a stuffed-shirt diplomat who, at 40, decides to get some fun out of life.

Prep Players Step Up Grid Practice

Las Lomas Knights Grapple with Tough Problem in Shaping '55 Football Team

The Las Lomas Knights were hit hard when they lost a host of senior veterans via the graduation route in June, but enough of a nucleus was left to give headman Coach George Deklotz a practically all-senior backfield around which to mold a 1955 varsity.

In the line it's a different story, where, outside of ends, the juniors appear to have taken over.

Lack of line experience on a varsity basis, a relatively light line with an approximate 165-pound average and a backfield that hits around 150 pounds per man loom as the biggest obstacles to overcome if the Knights are to hit the win column.

BRIGHT LIGHT in the line looks to be a junior by the monicker of Webb Johnson, who tips the scales at 190.

Webb, a standout guard last season, has been shifted to center where his speed and versatility can be used to better advantage.

Some of the sideline experts feel that he is definitely one of tne county's better pivot-man prospects.

IN THE BACKFIELD a senior Don Ogden, has been shifted to fullback from his halfback spot of last season and promises to give a punch to the attack up the middle.

Standouts in the various positions to date look to be as follows:

Center: Webb Johnson (jr.), Dave Kavert (jr.).

Guards: Herb Foster (jr.), Skip Andreggen (sr.), Ron Smith (jr.), Bruce Anderson (sr.).

Tackles: Wally Bsch (jr.), Tom Laperle (jr.), Bill Stott (jr.), Tom Toland (jr.).

Ends: Mike Edminster (sr.), Joe Silva (sr.), Russ Nodder (sr.).

Quarterback: Jim Symington (jr.).

Halfbacks: John Westlund (sr.), Dick Stanley (sr.), Don Schuppert (sr.), Vern Kenley (sr.).

Fullbacks: Don Ogden (sr.), Wayne Brown (sr.), Ken Stevens (jr.).

THE STARTING lineup for the game with John Swett in the season's opener next Friday afternoon at Crockett is still a long way from settled, and numerous shifts and experimentations by the coaching staff are definitely in the offing.

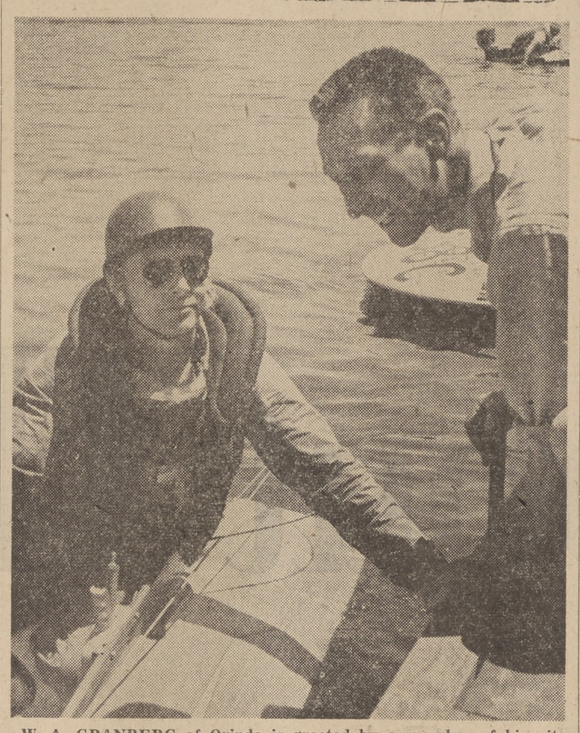
A good line won't really be had on the 32 members of the varsity squad until they can be observed under fire in game conditions.

Only then will the team really begin to shape up for league competition, which gets under way in October.

THE RIGHT SIDE

Who's a pedestrian? You are the moment you step from your car. Always leave your car from the curb, says the California State Automobile Association; never from the street side.

SPORTS



W. A. GRANBERG of Orinda is greeted by a member of his pit crew after setting a new world's record over the five-mile course in the National Stock Outboard Championships at Devil's Lake on the Oregon coast August 28. He set the new record at 43.185 m.p.h. in the A-Stock Hydro class. Wife Karen and son Don went along on the trip to see him compete against some of the best boat drivers in the nation. Earlier in the month, Granberg won the Western Division Championships at Seattle, which automatically qualified him for the Devil's Lake races.

Dons Work Hard In Preparation For Grid Season

The Acalanes Dons had the leather cracking all week long as they engaged in a series of drills and scrimmages designed to get the squad in shape for their opener with the highly rated Piedmont Highlanders next Friday night at 8 o'clock under the lights of the Piedmont High School field.

An original varsity squad of 43 has been trimmed down to a 36-member unit, which gives three full squads and three in reserve—and that's probably the way it will stay for the opener.

THE SQUAD members to date are as follows:

Halfbacks: Stuart Busby (sr.), Harold Ecklund (jr.), Mike Barrett (sr.), Larry Pilcher (jr.), Gary Arel (jr.), Butch DeVillers (sr.), Alden Robertson.

Quarterbacks: Richard Markstein (jr.), Alan Sutton (sr.), Don Combs (jr.).

Fullbacks: John Cadwell (jr.), Gene Bell (sr.).

STUART BUSBY, a sophomore, looks to be a good kicker, along with Richard Markstein, and present plans call for them to share the punting between them, at least in early practice games.

Busby also is figured to do the kicking-off as well as being the toe on conversions.

The starters in both the line and backfield vary from practice to practice, but off last week's showing it looks like Markstein at the Q.B. spot, with Gary Arel or Butch DeVillers at left half, John Cadwell at full and either Harold Ecklund or Stuart Busby at right half.

Gene Bell and Ron Fadelli loom as the linebackers, with Mike Barrett, a much-improved player, seeing duty at the safety spot.

IN THE LINE Pete Villa and Steve Jordan hold an edge. Malynn, Owens and Williamson are in a fight for the starter spot, while Frederickson and Eickmeyer show at the guards in the latest reports.

Ron Fadelli holds an edge at center to round out the Don eleven at this stage of the game.

Chances are that a good number of players will see action in the Piedmont game, inasmuch as the coaches are anxious to see as many as possible of the squad under fire in game conditions.

Daily drills have stressed fundamental play, and a great deal of work appears necessary if the Dons are to cope with the Highlanders, who are spearheaded by a good nucleus of veteran players, many of whom rated very high in East Bay prep circles last season.

Junior League Title Captured By Music School

The Junior Recreation Baseball League wound up in big-league style August 31 when a last-inning home run enabled City School of Music to come from behind with a Frank Merriwell finish to cop the season's pennant.

The game, played at the Walnut Creek Municipal Park, was a one-game playoff for the title, after the season's regular schedule ended with Boero's and City School of Music all tied up with but a single defeat each during a summer of play.

Going into the final frame, City School was trailing by a 9-8 count and one was down with a runner on first, to set the stage for a dramatic blow that settled the issue.

JACK CARMAN was at bat when he caught one to his liking and proceeded to drive the ball out of the park in deep center, to score himself and the runner ahead of him, and the shouting was on but the ball game was over.

John Paul Jones, outfielder for the winners, had a good night at the plate, as he had four for four, including a home run, while Stu Fox clobbered four for five for Boero's.

The 10-9 win gave City School of Music the championship, with Boero's in the runner-up spot.

WINNER OF the Walnut Creek Section was Kitty Bar, which took its last game by toppling First Savings and Loan 20-13.

Results of games during the final week of play were as follows:

Al Pereira's Excavators 7, Elks 6.

W. C. Canning 17, Berkeley Savings 2.

Kitty Bar 20, First Savings 13.

City School of Music 18, W. C. Sheet Metal 2.

Boero's 9, Broadway Shopping Center 1.

City School of Music 20, Elks Club 7.

FINAL LEAGUE standings:

	W	L	T
City School of Music	8	1	0
Boero's	7	2	0
Kitty Bar	6	2	1
Bway Shopping	5	4	0
First Savings	4	4	1

Junior Leaguers' Baseball Ends Action-Packed Season

By ERWIN MATTSON

JUNIOR LEAGUE baseball just completed a season of play with a playoff game that was tops.

The caliber of ball was exceptional and, make no mistake about it, the kids were playing to win.

Interest in the kid games grew as the season went along, and it was gratifying to see parents on hand, for the first time in some cases. Rest assured, it won't be the last!

We get terribly busy in this mad-rush life of ours and sometimes we miss the most important things because we are in too much of a hurry to get to we know not where.

It was interesting to observe Junior League play, and to say that it was perfect would be stretching the truth.

THE PROBLEMS, on the whole, though, were not on the field of play, but, rather, among the spectators in many instances.

Winning is a great thing and we should always strive for that goal if we are to get anywhere, but there is also a great deal in being a gracious loser.

The important thing with Junior ball was that it gave a grand bunch of kids a chance to play and a chance to develop skills by playing.

It's to be hoped that they learned to get along with others and benefited from the negative actions of a minority as well as the positive actions of a majority.

A great deal of credit should go to the sponsors of the various teams and to those who did so much work in the way of coaching and practice sessions as well as game management.

Joe Freitas as umpire-in-chief did a grand job as he handled the kids and situations with judgment and a fine sense of humor that brought him a new host of friends.

Credit must also go to Ruth Wallis, director of the Walnut Creek Recreation Program, whose work not only made the leagues possible but whose active attendance attested to her genuine interest.

May the problems of the season become solved in the tomorrows that are sure to come.

One of the highlights of the final game was the presentation of gifts as tokens of appreciation on behalf of the player to their coaches.

For Beautiful Lawns

Enjoy really beautiful lawns ...mulch with Bandini Steer each fall and spring.
But don't be satisfied with ordinary manure. Look for Bandini Steer...and there's good reason.
Bandini Steer is richer steer ...from market-fatted cattle. Aging and heat-treating (an exclusive Bandini process) increases its benefits.
Spread The Word* Now!
To recondition established lawns...spread Bandini Steer over the grass. It loosens the soil and adds nourishment to root areas.
On new lawns, a top dressing of Bandini Steer protects the seeds from hot sun, holds moisture and provides food for early growth.
But old lawn or new... always use Bandini Steer. Your Reward? Year 'round beauty your neighbors will envy...because

The group aims to provide a library with a variety of good books; quiet reading and game areas; a new toy for each child; holiday, birthday and Christmas gifts for each child; draperies and table cloths for dining room; TV, radio and phonograph for each living area; facilities and materials for the clergymen who conduct weekly religious services.

League Will Hold Finance Drive Soon

The League of Women Voters which serves the East Contra Costa County area has scheduled its finance drive for the last two weeks of September, a time which coincides with the finance efforts being made by the leagues of the entire East Bay region.

At this time financial support, to supplement the league's modest dues, will be solicited from individual men and women interested in good government and legislative study.

SINCE 1920 people interested in good government from the local level to the national scene have looked toward the league for reliable information. The State and National Leagues of Women Voters, together with each local league, furnish the public with such valuable information as the California Voters' Handbook, reports of local studies, legislators' voting records, candidates' answers to questionnaires, and the pros and cons of ballot measures.

In charge of the local league's finance campaign which will start September 19 are Mrs. John Hunt, chairman, Lafayette; Mrs. Paul Craven, president, Walnut Creek; and Mrs. John Holt, treasurer, Concord.

THIS COMMITTEE will be assisted by numerous women from the membership who will serve as solicitors throughout this area.

The local league was advanced from provisional to permanent status in June. Among the special projects to be financed by the drive is a study of Contra Costa County government by the Richmond and Concord groups.

Highway Truck Problem Can Be Solved by Cooperation

Commuter problems are among the most persistent and the most important for this area. That is only natural, since commuters constitute a large segment of our population.

A commuter problem which seems to crop up every so often is that of big trucks on Mt. Diablo Boulevard. Periodically the complaint arises that huge trucks on the highway during peak commute hours cause delays in commuters' trips to work or home.

That there has been justification for such complaints has been shown by the various negotiations which have been held with the Truck Operators Association by the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation. From time to time agreement has been reached regarding rescheduling of the trucks so that their times or routes would not conflict with heavy commuter traffic.

Each agreement has resulted in temporary amelioration of the situation. Then, a few months or several months later, the problem reoccurs, in varying degrees of intensity.

Recently complaints about trucks on the highway during peak commute hours have been increasing. The Highway Federation has been asked by the Contra Costa County Commuters Association to take some action.

In that connection, it is encouraging to note the willingness of the owner and president of Seaboard Transportation Company, Walter A. Junge, to cooperate with the Highway Federation and the Commuters Association. (See news story in this issue.)

The statement of Junge, himself a commuter who lives in Orinda, is especially heartening in view of the opinion of some commuters that Seaboard trucks are among the worst "offenders."

Whether or not this is the case is not the province of this editorial to determine. The main point, as we see it, is the general recognition that a problem exists and the general desire to do something to solve it.

The Seaboard head maintains thet his firm is doing what it can to avoid being the cause of commuter traffic delays. However, he is not turning a deaf ear to the plaints of area residents.

What They Say

Some Are Happy, Others Are Sad

Children of the area have either started, or are about to start, the school term. Our researchers knew they wouldn't determine much by asking a question about reactions to such a subject. Naturally, the answer would depend on whom they asked—pupils, parent or teacher.

But the researchers decided to have some fun, and put the following question to a small cross-section of the population:

"ARE YOU glad, sorry, indifferent, or what, tnat school has started again, or is about to start?"

The first reply came from Julie Alves, 966 Oakland Street, Lafayette. Julie has started the fourth grade at Lafayette School and celebrated her ninth birthday just before the start of the term Tuesday. "Some birthday present," she said dejectedly.

Mrs. Barry James, 46 Berkeley Avenue, Orinda, said: "I'll be glad to get back on schedule after gadding about all summer." Her daughter, Laurie, will begin the fifth grade at Orinda School Monday.

"SHE DOESN'T feel bad" about going back," Mrs. James continued, "In fact, she would be happy if she had Mrs. Edith Andree as she did last year. Laurie is a bit uncertain about liking the fifth grade as well as the fourth. We'll be back to regular hours and music practice."

"I could hardly wait for the children to come back to school," said Mrs. Graylis Vossler. She particularly referred to pupils at Lafayette's Vallecito School. She's the principal.

"Oh, we're very glad!", was the immediate reply of Mrs. Leslie S. Stahnke of 2285 Walnut Boulevard, Walnut Creek. When asked why, she chuckled and said, "There are so many reasons."

OF A MUCH DIFFERENT feeling was Mrs. Merl R. Johnson of Love Lane, Danville who felt " — very sad about it." She added, "I enjoy having the children home and they're also such a big help. They're tickled to be returning to school."

Mrs. Robert Newell of 1890 Helen Road, Pleasant Hill, had obviously done a good deal of thinking about her three school-age children. She said, "Though I enjoy them around the house I'm glad that they can get back to school. It will give them new interests and something constructive to do. Children actually become tired of even summer activities after a certain point. They are looking forward to the re-opening of school."

Congressman Will Open Contractors' New Headquarters

Congressman John F. Baldwin will officiate at the opening of the new offices of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County tomorrow at 3 p.m., it is announced by Garry Grover of Lafayette, president of the association.

The new offices, at 3462 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, are to be "open for inspection" to the public commencing Sunday and for the balance of National Home Week, September 10 - 18, 1955, Grover said, which starts tomorrow and continues through September 18.

THE BUILDING provides, in addition to a reception room and offices for the staff of the association, a conference room to be used for Board of Directors meetings and for meetings with various governmental officials.

According to Grover, the conference room will be available to local civic groups at a nominal "cleanup" charge as a public service.

Grover states that the association directors feel that the public will be interested in "Our Home — of Our Own" during visits to the model homes open for inspection during "this yearly recognition of the newest techniques and materials going into today's homes."

THE NEW BUILDING was erected with the cooperation and assistance of many o fthe association's members through the donation of labor, materials and services.

"Descriptive material published by our members will be available to the public during National Home Week as an aid in the inspection and enjoyment of the homes open during the week," Grover says.

Clay Will Talk On 'Master Plan For Park System'

"A Proposed Master Plan for a County Park System" will be the topic of Ed Clay at the meeting of the Emergency Committee for Master Planning in Contra Costa County Monday night at 8 o'clock in Room 208 of Acalanes High School.

In addition to the talk by Clay, President Robert Guichard will discuss the purposes, operation and past performance of the Emergency Committee.

Bill Dyer, program chairman, will preside. Regular meetings are held the second Monday evening of each month.

Guichard points out that the Emergency Committee affords an "open forum" for improvement associations, where those attending can present their zoning and planning problems.

Rummage Sale Planned

The Xi Delta Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi is holding a rummage sale at the PG&E building on Bonanza Street from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. tomorrow. Proceeds will go to a worthy charity.

Rummage Sale Will Aid Retarded Kids

A rummage sale for the benefit of the Mentally Retarded Children's Pre-School of Danville, will be held on September 30 and October 1 at 1388 North Main Street, Walnut Creek. A call to YE 4-2914 or YE 4-2323 will bring a truck for pickup of contributions for the sale.

Bill Rinker is chairman of the project which is sponsored by the Walnut Creek 20-30 Club.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

Just one year ago, Friday, August 20, 1954, you had a very good editorial in the Sun on shopping: Where Do You Shop? (Page 10). I agree that shopping locally is very beneficial to both residents and merchants, so I do not disagree with the basic premise of the editorial. However, there is one sentence which warrants some further analysis:

"They (our merchants) pay a lion's share of the taxes which buy police protection, schools, fire protection, roads, sanitation and utilities." (emphasis added)

IS THIS true, or is it an exaggeration What is a lion's share? Does it not usually infer something larger than one's proportionate share?

In a letter to me, dated April 8, to which Mr. C. E. Johnson of PIE continually refers, Harry Morrison of the County Taxpayer's Association says:

". . . Orinda's total assessed valuation is $15,360,000.00 . . . The assessed valuation of the Orinda business area is $244,645.00. This is approximately 1.6% of the school district's (Orinda's) assessed value. This percentage represents the contribution of business to the payment of taxes in the Orinda area. It is much a smaller percentage than that prevailing in the average community, where the business area is larger."

Is 1.6% of the total "a lion's share?" Based on last year's tax rate in code area 8304 — $8.611 — businesses in Orinda paid about $21,000 in property taxes of a total of about $1,300,000. Does not the individual resident, collectively, pay the lion's share?

SOME MAY SAY: "Increase the amount of business property and thereby decrease the amount paid by householders." But even a doubling of the business valuation would not produce a relatively large increase in taxes.

Moreover, compare Orinda with Lafayette. The latter has several times as much business area as Orinda, yet the tax rates for 1954-55 were as follows:

Orinda (code 8304) $8.611.

Lafayette (code 7307) $9.149.

Don't you agree that we must be most cautious about repeating cliches and generilizations such as "broaden the tax base," "businees pays the lion's share of taxes," etc., and that we need more careful analysis of a good deal of the material which we are asked to swallow?

For example, the statement made by C. E. Johnson to the Orinda Association on April 18 (Page 10):

". . . this could mean a reduction of $8.00 or more annually in the taxes of the county residents and somewhat more than half that amount to Orinda residents."

With more than 100,000 taxpayers in Contra Costa County that would mean that PIE would pay in excess of $800,000 annually! Preposterous! A malicious and inexcusable error which unfortunately has been accepted as gospel by many people who have not taken time for simple analysis of facts. Several statements in that paragraph on Page 10 will not bear close scrutiny.

SO THE PREMISE of my editorial is: Let's stick to FACTS and cut out the untruths and half-truths. Another example of what I mean: In a recent press release of the County Taxpayers Association, comparison is attempted between the average assessed valuation in Greenwich, Conn., and Orinda, in a derogatory way — $18,000 in the former as against $3500 in the latter, without stating that the basis of assessment in each case is vastly different.

In Greenwich, all property has been recently reassessed at an average of 65% of market, whereas in Orinda the assessments are 10% to 20% of market and there has been no reassessment for years, so the valuations are far out of line in many cases.

Now for the picture a year later —your editorial on page 12 of the issue of August 19, 1955: We need more such statements of the basic premise on which good planning is based. People must be helped to an understanding of what planning is and be shown examples of what difficulties lack of planning can bring. I hope that you will continue to support the cause of good planning by frequent editorials like this one (if not by news items).

Meet my pal, Phil

One of my closest pals is a plain, old, manila file folder, stashed away in the upper-left hand drawer of my desk. Comes time to write this column — I'm often at a loss. (No remarks from the gallery, please!)

Then, I remember Phil, the file folder, and he usually saves the day. Phil divulges little scraps of papers — notes, clips, ideas — and then I hit the typewriter. So be it today. Let's see what the file folder has to offer.

Here's an A.P. story from Sacramento, reporting that many of the new 1,996 laws signed by the Governor went into effect last Tuesday midnight. Not world-shaking but certainly thirst-quenching are new laws which 1. specifies that orange drink must have at least 30 per cent orange juice; and 2. allows serving of tap beer with up to 4 per cent alcohol by volume. A 3.2 limit has prevailed.

I don't know why I selected this item first, unless I'm thirsty.

It will cost us . . .

Another law will affect your pocket purse — but not until next April. Counties can then levy a 1 per cent sales tax, which will happen on purchases made in unincorporated areas. Most of Central Contra Costa County is unincorporated.

Here's a law which says that, as of last Tuesday, horror or crime comic books cannot be sold to anyone under 18. Less important but interesting is the law which entitles you to wreck your own car without an auto wrecker's license — if you don't wreck more than three vehicles within a year.

And what is next?

Here are two news stories clipped together with a letter on top. The stories, printed within the past two weeks, announce that the Board of Supervisors reversed decisions of the County Planning Commission on zoning matters in favor of the applicants.

The letter on top is quite heated but, since it is unsigned, we cannot print it. But the writer demands to know why our county supervisors appoint a large planning commission composed of intelligent citizens who spend hours upon hours of their time studying zoning problems — only to be constantly over-ruled by the same board of supervisors. The letter says we would be amazed to know how many times the supervisors reverse decisions of the commission. It is an interesting question which can be debated on both sides.

Foolish answers to questions

Well, now, that was a serious item from the file folder. Let's wind it up with a clip from the Enquirer of Carlinviller, Illinois. Here's how Editor W. L. Schmitt answered a questionnaire from a journalism student at college:

Q. There's lots of talk about a free press. Are the newspapers in this country free?

A. Ours isn't. Our subscription rate is $3.50.

Q. Will TV replace the newspapers in America?

A. I doubt it. Television may oust radio, the gramophone and the stereopticon, but it can't kill the newspapers. Here are some things you can do with newspapers that you can't do with a TV set: Swat flies, line dresser drawers, wrap garbage, help the Scouts with their paper drive, and polish windows. Did you know that a wadded up newspaper makes the best glass polisher there is?

Q If you had your way, Mr. Editor, what would you lay out as the ideal newspaper?

A. One that had at least four front pages and was made up of 50 per cent pictures, 50 per cent stories, and 60 per cent advertising.

Q Are newspaper employees well paid?

A. There are two schools of thought on that. The publisher thinks they are handsomely paid and the employe has some honest doubts about it. I don't imagine they'll ever come to complete agreement.

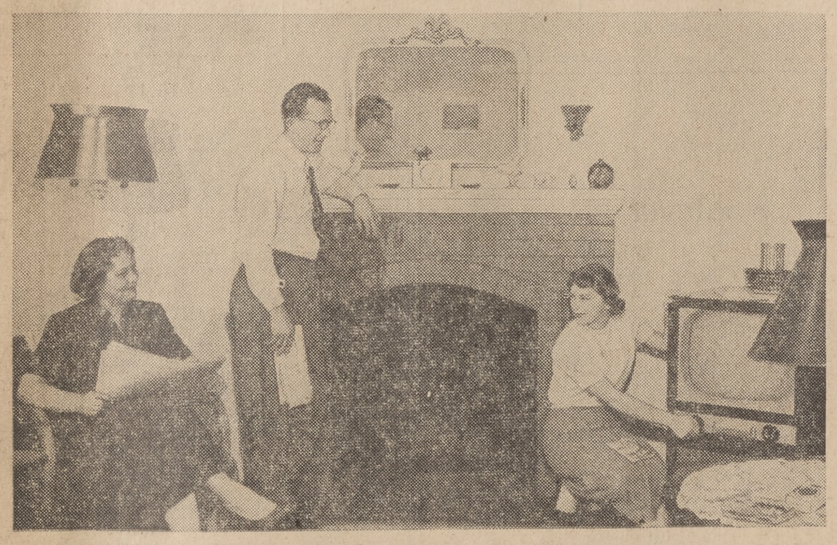
Meet the Scotts who set up housekeeping in Yuba City in 1935

20 YEARS AGO—when Sam and Dorothy Scott were married, they had just seven appliances: range, water heater, refrigerator, mixer, radio, electric iron, waffle iron.

TODAY—their comfortable home has 19 appliances: larger refrigerator, vacuum cleaner, range, mixer, 2 radios, sandwich grill, electric iron, toaster, waffle iron, electric clock, television, gas furnace, larger water heater, electric heating pad, electric razor, washer, coffee maker, record player. Also, their lighting has been improved.



Today they buy $12 worth of gas and electricity for $7

... because the average unit cost is about ⅓ less than it was in 1935

Most Californians, like the Scotts, have added gas and electric servants over the years. The average California home uses three times as much gas and electricity as twenty years ago. Naturally, your total bill may be higher, but the average price of a kilowatt hour of electricity and a cubic foot of gas is about one-third less than in 1935, thanks to mass production economies. As a result, the Scott's gas and electric bill in a recent month was $7.24. In 1935 the same amount would have cost over $12. And this same saving will most likely apply to your own bill. Can you think of any other prices that are lower today than 20 years ago? No wonder we say ...

Gas and electricity are cheap in California!
